

Caregivers' guide to Kaiser Permanente Medicare health plans

You want high-quality care for your loved one – a health plan that offers personalized support, features extra benefits, and makes care convenient for both of you. That's what you get with a Kaiser Permanente Medicare health plan.

Care and coverage combined in one plan

- All of our available doctors welcome Kaiser Permanente Medicare health plan members.
- Procedures ordered by a doctor are covered.
- You can easily add dental, vision, and hearing coverage to a plan.

Built in caregiving tools

- View your loved one's health record with the Act for a Family Member feature on kp.org.¹
- Message their care team with questions and schedule new appointments.
- Refill their prescriptions.

A seamless care experience

- Our doctors work as a team to take care of our members.
- We coordinate care every step of the way, from preventive services to chronic condition management.
- Care teams view the same medical record, so members don't have to repeat their story.

Convenient access to care

- See a doctor, get a lab test, and pick up prescriptions during one visit in many locations.
- Get 24/7 care with phone and video visits.
- Refill prescriptions online or over the phone and have them delivered.

1. You don't need to be a member of Kaiser Permanente or biologically related to the person you're caring for to use the Act for a Family Member feature. You must be 18 years old, have your own kp.org account, and not be a staff member at a caregiving facility. The person you're caring for needs to add you to their account. 2. Available on select plans. Not available in all regions.

In California, Hawaii, and Washington, Kaiser Permanente is an HMO plan with a Medicare contract. In Colorado, Kaiser Permanente is an HMO, HMO-POS and PPO plan with Medicare contracts. In Oregon, Southwest Washington, Georgia, Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia, Kaiser Permanente is an HMO and HMO-POS plan with a Medicare contract. Enrollment in Kaiser Permanente depends on contract renewal.
